faculty, staff, and other community members.

Individuals impacted by discrimination or harassment may contact the Office of Equity to receive support, resources, and information even if they do not wish to move forward with the Complaint Resolution Process described in Section III below.

B. Sexual Misconduct: Prohibited sex discrimination includes sexual misconduct (dating/domestic violence, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, and stalking). Individuals impacted by sexual misconduct may contact the Office of Equity to receive support, resources, and information even if they do not wish to move forward with the Complaint Resolution Process. Please see the Comprehensive Policy on Sexual Misconduct or contact the Office of Equity for additional information. https://www.northwestern.edu/equity/.

C. Jurisdiction:

harassment. Northwestern may investigate any reported violations of this policy that occur in the context of a University program or activity or that othe regardless of whether the reported conduct occurred on or off campus. For every report, the University will review the circumstances of the reported conduct to determine whether the University has jurisdiction over the parties involved and take steps within its control to eliminate, prevent, and address the reported conduct. If the respondent is not a member of the University community or is no longer affiliated with the University at the time of the report or at the time the Complaint Resolution Process is initiated (including when the respondent has graduated or left the University), the University typically is unable to take disciplinary action or conduct an investigation.

- D. Purpose: Northwestern is committed to fostering an environment in which all members of our community are safe, secure, and free from prohibited discrimination and harassment. When learning of conduct or behavior that may not meet these standards, community members and the University are expected to take an active role in upholding this policy and promoting the dignity of all individuals.
- E. Accessibility: The Office of Equity is committed to making our services accessible to all members of the Northwestern community. The Office is cognizant of the physical accessibility of our space, the cultural competency of our staff, and the method and tone of the services we provide. Accessibility includes but is not limited to: providing reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities, including mental health housing, or services, or in the educational programs or activities Northwestern operates.¹

In determining whether discrimination occurred, the Office of Equity examines whether there was an

4. Retaliation

Northwestern strictly prohibits retaliation against any member of its community for reporting an incident of discrimination or harassment or for participating, in any manner, in an investigation or hearing related to a report of discrimination or harassment. The University considers such actions to be protected activities in which all members of the Northwestern community may freely engage.

Members of the community are prohibited from engaging in actions, directly or through others, which are aimed to deter a reasonable party or a witness from reporting discrimination or harassment or participating in an investigation or hearing or done in retribution for such activities.
