

ASSESSING RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE NRO OFFICER TRAINING: ISSUES WITH DEFINING AND DETERMINING LEARNING IN A PRE-EXISTING PROGRAM

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- As a result of attending the 2015 Residential College NRO Officer Training:
- Demonstrate leadership skills (1)
 - Identify and address the needs of the community (1,2,3)
 - Demonstrate leadership skills (1,2)
 - Identify and address the needs of the community (1)
 - Act as a role model for the community (1,2)

TEACHING STRATEGY

- QA 7, 2015, ORAI and NRO Officer Training Curriculum:
- Officer Training Leadership
 - Demonstrate leadership skills (1,2)
 - Officer Training Leadership
 - Identify and address the needs of the community (1)
 - Act as a role model for the community (1,2)

ASSESSMENT STRATEGY

- Pre-existing assessment = [March 2015]
- Pre-existing assessment = [Leadership Curriculum]
- Graduate assessment data
- NRO Officer Training Leadership

DEPARTMENT (AND DIVISION) OUTCOMES

- 1 Demonstrate leadership skills (Personal Development, Social Responsibility, Cognitive and Practical Skills)
- 2 Demonstrate leadership skills (Interpersonal Competence)
- 3 Evaluate and address the needs of the community (Personal Development)

MAJOR FINDINGS

Graduate assessment data

Results from 72 respondents

